

Windrush: A Celebration

On 22nd June 1948, the first 492 Caribbean people arrived at Tilbury Docks in Essex. They had left their homes behind and were embarking on a new life in a country thousands of miles away.

In celebration of Windrush Day, the children and staff were treated to a special performance by the Ebony Steel Band. They make great contributions to the Notting Hill Carnival and everyone enjoyed some familiar tunes, including Bob Marley's Three Little Birds.
